

A research-driven product designer passionate about enriching digital experiences. Values frequent research, measurable goals, and rapid iteration. Seeking to engage the design process from end-to-end in a generalist role.

Experience

Redshift Digital

Senior UX Designer

March 2016 - Present

As a Senior UX Designer, I lead teams of designers, developers, researchers, and stakeholders by guiding the design strategy, providing feedback, and representing our work to clients. I have led projects for Panasonic, Western Union, Kaiser Permanente, and Vlocity.

OurPath Digital Health

Design Consultant

August 2016 - Present

OurPath is a digital therapeutics company based in the U.K. On a part-time basis, I refresh and redesign the OurPath website and digital product. Projects include revising the website's IA and creating a style guide, wireframes, and icon sets.

Redshift Digital

UX Designer

June 2015 - March 2016

Redshift is a S.F.-based design agency. As a UX Designer, I contributed to the redesign of Kaiser Permanente's digital capabilities. I worked closely with design leads and team members to design, test and refine sections of the new KP.org.

Other projects

Advanced Microgrid Solutions (Energy storage), LiftIgniter (Machine-learning tools, YC W14), Arrow (Video-texting by Yahoo), Brief.ai (Contacts management), Marker (Location discovery).
